Weather Probabilities.

For this section fair tonight with minimum temperature below freezing point. Friday fair, with rising temperature; light variable winds.

WEDDINGS.

Miss Bache May Polman, daughter of Mr. Charles O. Polman, and Mr. William H. McCuen were married in Grace Church at 7 o'clock last night. A number of friends and relatives of the families represented were present. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Edgar Carpenter, rector of the church. The bride advanced to the altar on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. She wore a gown of blue bradcloth and hat to match, and carried a bouquet of white roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Agnes Polman, who wore blue cloth and carried white chrysanthemums. Mr. Carl J. Mueller, of Washington, acted as best man, and the ushers were Mr. Arthur H. Mitchell, of this city, and Mr. Jamison, of the Episcopal Theological Seminary. Preceding the ceremony, Mr. H. H. Freeman, organist of St. John's Episcopal Church, of Washington, who played the wedding march, gave a short organ recital. Mr. and Mrs. McCuen left on a wedding trip in the north. Upon their return they will be at home at 113 north Alfred street.

Mr. Fred M. Penn, of this city, and Miss Elsie Howdeshell, a very popular young lady of Lincoln, Fairfax county, were married last night at the parsonage of the Baptist Church by Rev. W. F. Watson. The ceremony was witnessed by only a few of the relatives and friends of the bride and groom. Mr. F. M. Kerriek was best man. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Penn left on a wedding trip.

FUNERAL.

The funeral of Miss Kate E. Price, who died on Tuesday, took place at 11 o'clock this morning from her late home, 118, north Alfred street. The services were conducted by Rev. P. P. Phillips, of St. Paul's P. E. Church, assisted by Rev. Edgar Carpenter, of Grace P. E. Church. The pallbearers were Messrs. M. L. Price, Jr., C. Marion Price, Robt. Zimmerman, J. S. Evelett, C. H. Callahan and John B. Waller. The interment was in the Methodist cemetery. The deceased was a daughter of the late Ellis L. and Judith P. Price. She leaves three brothers, Capt. Mark L. Price, City Auditor E. F. Price and Mr. J. Hanson Price and two sisters, Mrs. John R. Zimmerman and Miss Lizzie Price.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.] There were but two cases before the Police Court this morning. The first called was that of a young woman who had been cited to appear at the instance of another young woman, who charged her with assault. The complainant alleged that the defendant used abusive language and beat her on the head with a brick. She also alleged that the defendant threw a brick which knocked her baby from its carriage. The accused was fined $5.

The other case was that of a colored girl who was charged with breaking glass in a window in a house in the northwestern section of the city. She was fined $5.

RESIGNED.

Sterling O. Stratton, fertilizer clerk of the State Department of Agriculture, has tendered his resignation, to take effect December 31st, and it will be accepted. Mr. Stratton, who has held his present position for many years, sever his connection with the Department of Agriculture in order to accept a place with the Bryant Fertilizer Company of Alexandria.

He is a native of Appomattox, and at one time represented that county in the Legislature. His present office is an important one, as the inspection of fertilizers is conducted under his supervision. — [Richmond Journal.]

CHILD MARRIAGE IN INDIA.
At the Young People's Building this evening at 2:30 o'clock Mrs. Caroline P. Wallace from India addressed a union meeting on the subject of child-marriage in India. Mrs. Wallace related many remarkable facts. Miss Carrie A. Tennant, her assistant was present at the meeting, and sang a solo, "The Child-Wives of India." Mrs. Wallace told of the results of the marriage of girls from 7 to 12 to adult husbands and said the caste system controls these early marriages.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.
Alexandria Division, No. 1, Ancient Order of Hibernians, at their meeting last night elected the following officers to serve for the ensuing year: J. J. Hanzley, president; T. McGowan, vice president; L. H. Dolan, recording secretary; F. T. Quinn, financial secretary; W. H. Sweeney, treasurer; William Hurley, sergeant-at-arms; M. Downey, sentinel.

THE COLD WAVE.
The weather was cold again last night, and the mercury in the thermometer at an early hour this morning had fallen to 20°. Haunting creek west of the highway bridge froze from shore to shore. The weather today has been fair and cold. The Weather Bureau announces warmer conditions for tomorrow. The mercury at noon registered 36°.

CORPORATION COURT.
[Judge L. C. Bailey presiding.] Douglas Stuart was appointed administrator of the estate of Julius S. Krouse.

LYNNHAVEN on half shell. BROILED on toast and CHAFING DISHES. Bril's Celebrated Single Fried at the OPERA HOUSE CAFE.

WALT HOLCOMB PREACHED.

Rev. Walt Holcomb of Nashville, Tennessee, who has been announced for several weeks, arrived yesterday and preached at Washington street M. E. Church South, last night. He emphasized the importance of turning away from our sins and failures and sorrows and with invincible determination and with concentration of all our energies, living the Christian life. Mr. Holcomb made a most favorable impression upon the congregation. His voice has the ring of sincerity; he is intensely earnest; he has a fund of telling illustrations; he has a fine sense of humor, and the fountain of tears is not far removed from the fountain of laughter; he is quite unconventional, practical and direct, genial and companionable. Mr. Rountree with his rich baritone voice sang with good effect the solo, "Is He Yours?" Mr. Holcomb preached at 10 a. m. today. The service will begin at 7:30 o'clock tonight.

OPERA HOUSE.

At the Opera House tonight the management offers to their patrons an entire change of vaudeville. The stock company, headed by those funny fellows, Hanson and Ely, will present a new farce comedy entitled "The Other Fellow's Girl." This is without doubt the best and funniest sketch yet produced by this company—rimming over with laughs from the rise to the fall of the curtain. Laurence Phillips, the eminent entertainer, in an original monologue, introducing new songs; Miss Florence May, the dainty comedienne, will also introduce several new song hits, that are sure to please. In addition to the above bill there will be 3,000 feet of moving pictures. On Friday night at 8:30 p. m. there will be a beautiful present given to the patron bearing the lucky number. Remember you have your choice of several handsome presents. See them on display in Saunders & Sons show window.

AMUSEMENTS.

The moving picture houses were well patronized last night and all of them furnished entertainment which should commend itself to all amusement lovers. The talking pictures at the Alexandria Amusement Company are simply marvelous and those who have seen them pronounce them fine. The management has gone to considerable expense to secure this department from the regular motion picture and are meeting with merited success.

The Elite Picture Company continues to attract large crowds and they are well paid for their visit. No better pictures are seen than at the Elite. The management promises something rare and new for tonight. Come out, enjoy the bracing air and see the moving pictures tonight. It will do you good.

CHANGE OF BUSINESS.

As will be seen by a notice elsewhere the insurance business so long conducted by Mr. M. B. Harlow has been sold by him to Mr. Harrie White. Mr. Harlow, one of the best known business men of the city, will continue his real estate business which for many years he has so successfully carried on. This change will not bring a new man into the insurance field but will only increase the scope of one already well-known as an insurance man. Mr. White, who was secretary of the Alexandria Home Fire Insurance Co. Inc., has, since that company ceased writing insurance, been carrying on quite a successful business of his own. The addition of Mr. Harlow's business will place Mr. White among the leading insurance men of this section.

EAGLES ELECT OFFICERS.

Alva Aerie, No. 871, Fraternal Order of Eagles, at their meeting last night elected the following officers: Worthy president, John A. Rice; vice president, Walter Jacobson; chaplain, S. J. Burnhouse; secretary, J. H. West; conductor, George A. Norris; inside guide, Harvey Summers; outside guide, Thomas Downey; trustees, P. T. Harrington, Thos. Chaucney and Charles Zimmerman. E. J. Fleming is the past worthy president, following the retirement of Thos. Chaucney. The installation will take place at the first meeting in January at which time a banquet will be given.

GEORGE WASHINGTON PARK.
The supervisors of Fairfax county, met yesterday at the Court House, Mr. George Auld presiding. Among other matters, they authorized the chair to appoint a commission to consider and report upon opening one or more streets through George Washington Park between the Leesburg (King street extended) and Little River (Lake street extended) turnpikes, an application to open said streets having been presented by James W. Roberts and other citizens of lower Fairfax and the George Washington Monument Association.

ST. ANDREWS' BROTHERHOOD.
Special services under the auspices of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew will be held at Christ Church tonight, when Rev. W. J. Morton will deliver an address on "Christ's prayer for the unity of his church." The services last night were held at Grace Church and tomorrow night the week's services will close at St. Paul's Church.

SUDDEN DEATH.
Mrs. Nellie Knight, wife of Mr. Julian D. Knight, died suddenly at her home, on Fairfax street, between Wilkes and Gibson, this afternoon about 3:30 o'clock. Besides her husband, she leaves three children.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. William J. Booth jr., at her handsome home on Washington street, yesterday afternoon very charmingly entertained a number of her friends at a bridge whist party given in honor of Mrs. C. E. Nicol. The prizes were won by Mrs. George Uhler, Mrs. Thos. Cochran and Mrs. Nicol, and after the games a beautiful lunch was served. The parlors were beautifully decorated with Christmas colors.

Miss Ella Hill has gone to Baltimore on a ten days visit to friends.

Rev. Ivan Green and Mrs. Green, who were married in this city two weeks ago, have taken up their residence at Suenandoh, Page county, where Mr. Green is in charge of the Episcopal Church.

Rev. and Mrs. Richard W. Micon have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Margaret Micon, and Mr. John Moncre Daniel, jr., which is to take place on Tuesday, the 15th inst., at 8 o'clock in the evening, in the chapel of the Theological Seminary. The Junior Euchre Club was very delightfully entertained last night by Miss Mary Phillips at her home on south Washington street. The pretty prizes were won by Miss Eva Dent and Mr. Wallace Lindsey.

Mr. J. C. Smoot and family who spent the summer and fall at North Wilkesboro, N. C., have returned to their home in this city to spend the winter.

Miss Virgie Hughes, of this city, and Mr. Herbert Lloyd, of Washington, were married last night at the Baptist Church parsonage by the Rev. W. F. Watson.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The annual supper to be given at Lee Camp Hall tonight for the Ladies' Auxiliary bids fair to be a most successful affair.

Emmett Ballock, one of the drivers for the Armour Meat Company, fell yesterday and broke one of his ribs. He was attended by Dr. Jones.

Luther Carter has sold for G. G. Walker his farm near Lincoln, Fairfax county, to Mrs. Lena Carter, where the latter will reside in future.

Charged with violating the pure food law by selling watered milk, two milk dealers were fined $10 each in the police court, in Washington, yesterday.

Allepha, the infant daughter of Mr. James M. and Mrs. Sarah M. Murphy, died last night at the home of her parents, 805 south Washington street.

The oyster supper last night at Lee Camp Hall by the Ladies' Auxiliary Ancient Order of Hibernians was well attended and proved to be a most enjoyable affair.

Mrs. Sarah J. Taylor, a former resident of this city, died at her home, Pleasant, Clarke county, Md., yesterday. Her remains were brought to this city this afternoon.

The G. R. Friendly of Christ Church will hold a fair at the Parish Hall that of which tomorrow afternoon and at night. They will give a musical entertainment for the benefit of the Sunday school.

Marriage licenses were issued in Washington yesterday to Frank J. Woodward and Paul V. Jones, both of S. afford Court-house, and to Robert L. Wright and Lydia M. Roberts, both of Alexandria.

The business transacted at the meeting of the Columbia Fire Company last night was of no general importance, the matter discussed having been solely of interest to the company. Three new members were elected.

There was a regular meeting of the Friendship Veteran Fire Association last night. Owing to the slim attendance, the election of officers as well as some important business was postponed to a future meeting.

Mr. Robert Walker, a prominent citizen of Alexandria county and who had held several positions in that county, died suddenly at his home at Walker Chapel, on Monday, aged 69 years. He had many friends in this city. His funeral took place from his late home this evening.

A lone and desolate she sat beside the ruins of a lagoon day. Her heart was bowed down with the thoughts of the night-breeze, but alas, never were. Suddenly her face brightened and a look of exquisite beauty suffused her being. The radiance of her smile arrested the eye, as she cried out in a whisper: "I don't care if papa did speak me, he said I could have Aunt's saucers for breakfast, and I just love them." Do you? Sylvan Blondheim, the Aunt's Stand, City Market.

Beware of Frequent Colds.
A succession of colds or a protracted cold is almost certain to end in chronic catarrh, from which few persons ever wholly recover. Give every cold the attention it deserves and you may avoid this disagreeable disease. How can you cure a cold? Why not try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy? It is highly recommended. Mrs. M. White, of Butler, Tenn., says: "Several years ago I was bothered with my throat and lungs. Someone told me of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I began using it and it relieved me at once. Now my throat and lungs are sound and well." For sale by W. F. Creighton & Co. and Richard Gibson.
